We have been asked by the Office of General Counsel (OGC) to provide that office with any comments or suggestions we may have regarding the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 (18 U.S.C. 207) in order that the Office of Government Ethics may be apprised of the Agency's position in this matter. A copy of OGC memo, dated 11 April 1979, along with Part VIII of the 3 April Federal Register, is attached for your information.

Your response should be submitted to the Plans and Programs Staff no later than 27 April 1979.

Bob,

I have no substantive comments to make except that the Act ~~represents~~ a gross overkill. The regulations do clarify some aspects of the law.
